

Laboratory Glass

All biohazardous and chemical waste will be picked up by Environmental Health and Safety. Submit disposal requests at ehs.osu.edu/service-requests

*Limit weight of each box to 30lbs or less.

BROKEN AND INTACT CHEMICALLY CONTAMINATED GLASS

Label as chemically contaminated lab glass.

Optional

Intact glassware only:

- Triple rinsed – Collect rinsate
- Labels defaced
- Caps removed
- Recycling picked up by custodians

Heat resistant glassware cannot be recycled.

BROKEN & INTACT BIOHAZARDOUS GLASS

Place biohazardous glass in primary container prior to placing in bio-box.

Seal and label with building name, room number, PI, and Infectious Waste Request number.

GLASS SLIDES

Biologically contaminated:

Chemically or non-contaminated:

Label as chemically contaminated lab glass.

Seal and label with building name, room number, PI, and Infectious Waste Request number.

NON-CONTAMINATED, CLEAN BROKEN GLASS AND CLEAN HEAT RESISTANT GLASS

Heat resistant glass examples:
Pyrex and Kimmax

Seal and label as non-contaminated or clean broken glass. Picked up by custodians.